

Year 9 Revision – Macbeth

Your exam is on Monday 27th March in the afternoon.

Exam content:

You will have 1hr to complete an essay response to a question about Macbeth's character.

This will be testing your ability to closely discuss the use of Shakespeare's language (words phrases and techniques) in one extract from the play.

You will then be expected to discuss how his character changes before and after this scene.

Revision focus:

You should use the resources provided in-class and on Google Classroom (the Hero to villain booklet and quote sheet) to help you to revise the following things:

- Macbeth's journey from Hero to Villain
- Macbeth as a tragic hero
- Macbeth's own actions that lead to his downfall
- Any other characters who influence him or might be responsible for his downfall
- Macbeth's own opinions on his character and choices
- Other character's opinions on Macbeth and his choices/actions

What you need to know:

Aim to learn 2-3 quotes that best show the change in Macbeth's character across the play and practise writing paragraphs with layers of meaning.

Year 9 Revision – Macbeth

Your exam is on Monday 27th March in the afternoon.

Exam content:

You will have 1hr to complete an essay response to a question about Macbeth's character.

This will be testing your ability to closely discuss the use of Shakespeare's language (words phrases and techniques) in one extract from the play.

You will then be expected to discuss how his character changes before and after this scene.

Revision focus:

You should use the resources provided in-class and on Google Classroom (the Hero to villain booklet and quote sheet) to help you to revise the following things:

- Macbeth's journey from Hero to Villain
- Macbeth as a tragic hero
- Macbeth's own actions that lead to his downfall
- Any other characters who influence him or might be responsible for his downfall
- Macbeth's own opinions on his character and choices
- Other character's opinions on Macbeth and his choices/actions

What you need to know:

Aim to learn 2-3 quotes that best show the change in Macbeth's character across the play and practise writing paragraphs with layers of meaning.